On behalf of Brazos Progressives, welcome to the 7th Annual Red Wasp Film Festival! We have a great line-up of independent films, and we're glad that you have joined us for this exciting event in downtown Bryan at StageCenter.

Art not only makes our community an interesting place to live, but it also encourages us to think creatively and critically about the world and people around us. We believe that art is essential to the vitality of downtown Bryan, and we encourage everyone to spend some time downtown this weekend enjoying the local shops, restaurants, and clubs.

Many thanks to StageCenter for providing us with a downtown venue. Thanks also to Thomas Liberty of Third Eye Productions (www.tepart.org) for designing the Red Wasp 2009 posters, t-shirts, banner, ads, and postcards, and to Cody Marx Bailey of The Creative Space (thecreativespace.org) for setting up and hosting the Red Wasp Film Festival web site. Many thanks to Revolution for hosting our cash bar again this year. We're also pleased that a group of local belly dancers will be opening the festival this year. Thank you for the dancing, Tori, Meredith, Katherine, and Rosie. Thanks also to Theodora Saladino Krc for creating this year's Red Wasp trophy.

This event wouldn't be possible without our festival sponsors:

- Texas Film Commission
- Texas State Optical of Bryan, G.D. Phillips, O.D.
- Brazos Natural Foods
- Lancaster Capital
- Stearns Design-Build
- Earth Art
- The Internal Medicine Center, Elizabeth C. Berigan, M.D.
- Arts Council of the Brazos Valley
- K. Norwood Portraiture
- Daniela Weaver Photography
- Captured Moments Portraitart and Photography
- As You Wish
- Madden's Casual Gourmet
- Square One Bistro
- Caffe Capri
- Art979
- Village Cafe
- Jenn Atkins, CNC LMT, Certified Nutritional Consultant
- All Things Spiritual, Teri A. Massengale, M-Div.
- Web Unlimited
- KEOS

We're grateful to all of the volunteers who have helped this year. The biggest thanks, of course, goes to the filmmakers who submitted films to Red Wasp. We're pleased and honored to feature their work.

Sincerely,

Brazos Progressives Steering Committee, www.brazosprogressives.org

Red Wasp Best Trophy by Theodora Saladino Krc

This year's Red Wasp Best trophy has been sculpted by local artist Theodora Saladino Krc. Theodora was born in Bryan and lived most of her adult life in Houston and San Diego before returning home in 2006. She is an abstract conceptual artist who received her bachelor's degree in painting from the University of Houston's Fine Arts Department.

Contact Theodora at 979-778-6026 for more information about her work. You can visit her web site at www.FreshPaintFineArt.com for an artist's statement, bio, and artwork.

Ovnio Films Presents the Making of Unsmokin' Drake

Red Wasp 2009 invites everyone to stick around after the awards ceremony Saturday night for a special presentation of a work-in-progress.

The Ovnio Films Group, the minds behind The Tragedy of the Fallen Cherub and Thursday Nights . . . and the Fridays That Follow, tackle their first feature-length venture in Unsmokin' Drake, the story of a man trying to part with that most common of addictions: cigarettes and the chaos that his life becomes without said vice. Join us for the premiere screening of three exclusive clips from the upcoming movie, including a Q&A session afterward.

Viewing Schedule and Ballot for Audience Favorite Ballot

Below is a viewing schedule for the Red Wasp Film Festival. The 2009 Red Wasp Film Festival awards ceremony will follow the screenings on Saturday, and we will close the festival with a special presentation, “Ovnio Films Presents the Making of *Unsmokin’ Drake.”

We invite all audience members to participate in voting for the Audience Favorite award. Please vote once each night for your favorite film of the evening.
